Dear Uncle Jim & Aunt Jane,

I wanted to tell you about a unique opportunity I have for this summer. I know many people my age look forward to having a break from school to sleep in, relax, and possibly get a summer job. I'm certainly all for having some down time, but even more exciting than that, I have been given a formal opportunity to serve in building God's kingdom.

I have applied for and been accepted to serve with Life Action Camp as one of their CREW members. What this means is that for a few weeks this summer, I'm going to be in Buchanan, Michigan, serving as a support staff member for their Summer Family Camps program.

Life Action's mission is to ignite movements of authentic Christianity, or, in a word, revival. How this plays out at The Camp is that every week, families come from all over the country to seek the Lord while enjoying the laid-back atmosphere the camp provides.

This is where I come in. The Camp brings around 65-70 CREW in each week to be disciplined while they help run the day-to-day operation of camp—this gives families the opportunity to focus on seeking God together without the distraction of everyday life. My responsibilities will vary while I'm there, but I know it will be a character-building and spiritually enriching experience.

This is where you come in. As a CREW member, I need to build a team of people who will invest in me while I'm there. First and most importantly, I need people to pray for me every day that I will be there. I cannot stress this enough! I need a prayer covering for my life as I step out on the "frontlines" of ministry to serve. Would you consider being one of those people for me?

Beyond that, would you ask the Lord if He would want you to invest a small financial amount into my summer? There is a modest program fee of $--- associated with being on the CREW. This is to help offset some of the cost of The Camp's discipleship program as they intentionally train me (please note that donations need to be made to me directly and are not tax deductible.)

I'm looking forward to what's ahead this summer, and I am glad that I get to invest my life in an opportunity to serve, grow spiritually, and gain some job and life experience. This isn't going to be "just another summer" for me!

As God moves you to participate in my future, either through prayer or finances or both, would you let me know? I appreciate you taking time to seek the Lord about this opportunity.

Thank you,

Clint West
